The Board of Scoil Mhuire Gan Smál has determined the maximum number of applicants who can be enrolled in Junior Infants each academic year as 54.

Bearing in mind;

- Overall school capacity

- Maximum class sizes
- Health and safety requirements

For Admissions to Junior Infants:

- If the maximum number of admissions is reached as outlined above, a selection process will apply whereby places will be offered to complete applications beginning with the oldest eligible applicant in that category and proceeding in descending order of age from the oldest to the youngest until all remaining available places have been filled.
- If during this selection process, two or more applicants have the same date of birth, the school will apply a random selection process to these applicants only in order to establish to whom places in that category will be offered.
- A waiting list for unsuccessful applications will be compiled and applicants will be placed on the list in the order of priority as set out above.
- Where a vacancy becomes available, applicants on the waiting list will be offered a place in accordance with the order of priority the applicant has been placed on the list. Incomplete applications will not be considered and applicants will not be placed on the waiting list.
- In a particular year, an applicant may fulfil the enrolment criteria and be offered a place. The parents of the applicant may accept this place and subsequently decide not to send their child to school that particular year. In this instance the applicant's place cannot be deferred.
